

Trouble at the Border: How to Support Your Clients to Go Beyond Where They Are Stuck
with Maria Nemeth
(1-8-2013)

ICF Credential	Presenter's overall effectiveness	Value of content	Most valuable part of presentation	Comments for the presenter	Reason for attending	Overall Evaluation	ICFLA and the PRESENTER have permission to use my comments for marketing purposes.	First and Last Name	Business Name
	1 = Low; 5 = High					1 = Low; 5 = High
ACC	5	5	The coaching practice. Very difficult situation but she handled it beautifully using so many core competencies. Wonderful!	You spoke with clarity & were very informative. It was very much worth my time. Thank you so much!	Earn CCEUs, Personal/professional development	5	NO
ACC	5	5	The playing field handout. Great visual for trouble at the border.	Handouts were very helpful.	Topic, Earn CCEUs	5	YES	Janet M. Goodman, Ph.D.	JMG Coaching
ACC	5	5	My biggest take-a-way from this class today was the idea that "when our clients are having Trouble at the Border, it might very well be a sign that things are really going right, not wrong. This will really help me move my clients into forward thinking and take the focus off all the reasons that keep them feeling stuck. I will use it for myself too!	This was a very content rich presentation and I am grateful to have had the opportunity to listen to Maria Nemeth on a live call. I have read The Energy of Money and refer back to it often. She is a wonderful teacher, coach and role model.	Topic, Presenter, Host, Earn CCEUs, Personal/professional development	5	YES	Colleen Stone	View From the Heart
ACC	5	5	specific examples of coaching someone at the Border with small steps and reminding them of the vision.	Thank you.	Host, Earn CCEUs, Personal/professional development	5	YES	Debby Bergh
ICF Coach Member - no ICF Credential	5	5	I found the metaphors and clear descriptions extremely helpful, and I am very grateful for Maria's generosity with material. There were specific areas covered that I know will be invaluable to a current coaching client.	Thank you, Maria, for your generosity, clarity of explanation and powerful metaphors. If I was in the US I would be joining you Mastering Life Energies programme this Spring, but work commitments require me to wait until later.	Topic, Personal/professional development	5	YES	Diane Walker	InTouch Associates Ltd
ACC	5	5	Intention handout	Wonderful slant on making coaching more effective using the discussion around intentions and knowing it is only trouble at the border and not "stuck."	Topic, Earn CCEUs	5	YES	Lauren Graham
ACC	3	3			Topic	3	YES	Linda Finkelstein	LCD Consulting Partners
ACC	4	4	I appreciated the interest inventory handout		Earn CCEUs, Personal/professional development	4	NO
ICF Coach Member - no ICF Credential	4	4	Tips on getting past the border.... Monkey Mind Drama or dreamer, conflict or contribution, reason or results. Will definitely use that! Coaching demo - acknowledgement and celebration of your body as it is. That was powerful.	Nothing - she was poised, professional and engaged.	Topic, Earn CCEUs	4	YES	Laurie Geoffroy	Net Force Coaching
MCC	5	5		Speak a little louder	Earn CCEUs	5	NO
ICF Coach Member - no ICF Credential	5	5	Most valuable portion of the program for me was listening to the question and answer scenarios and the role play between Maria and Susan. More specifically, how Maria worked with Susan on drilling down to get to a more significant small step goal she could take, initiating more challenging questions that provided an opportunity for Susan to think beyond her first response or what she thought was the immediate resolution. Highly effective and at the same time supportive.		Topic, Earn CCEUs, Personal/professional development	5	YES	B. Kennally

Trouble at the Border: How to Support Your Clients to Go Beyond Where They Are Stuck
with Maria Nemeth
(1-8-2013)

ICF Credential	Presenter's overall effectiveness	Value of content	Most valuable part of presentation	Comments for the presenter	Reason for attending	Overall Evaluation	ICFLA and the PRESENTER have permission to use my comments for marketing purposes.	First and Last Name	Business Name
	1 = Low; 5 = High					1 = Low; 5 = High
ICF Coach Member - no ICF Credential	4	4	The presentation of the 6 types of energy and the coaching session were the most valuable. I see myself looking at being stuck from a new and empowering viewpoint.	I really appreciate the empowering new viewpoints. A handout listing the 6 types of energy would have been helpful. Your voice is soft and I was unable to hear critical pieces of information. I hope the recording will fill in the blanks, but listening for another 1.5 hours for what I may not be able to hear a second time is a large investment of time. Is the information about the 6 energies available in print anywhere? I also really appreciated your coaching and also Carrie's input concerning it. The session really hit home for me because a close friend has the same problem as Susan. Thank you for teaching me important information which can empower my coaching to bring better value to my clients.	Earn CCEUs	4	YES	Quote but do not attribute
PCC	4	4			Earn CCEUs	4	NO
ACC	5	5	Well, I took three pages of notes as I found almost nothing invaluable. Dr. Nemeth explanation of the transition from Visionary Reality to Physical Reality was especially enlightening and will be very useful with my clients. Her tip on how to shift attention from limited "habits of behavior" toward goal attainment was a real gem.	Same as above. Please share with her.	Topic, Earn CCEUs, Personal/professional development	5	YES	Hazel Pegues	Pegasus Consulting, LLC
ACC	5	5	I really appreciated the discussion about what happens 'at the border' when moving from physical reality to visionary reality. I also appreciated the Intentions Inventory, and the reminder to set goals in a way that promotes success.		Topic, Earn CCEUs	5	YES	Leah Wang
ACC	4	4			Topic	4	YES	Angela Posse
MCC	5	5	The whole concept (well-supported) of "trouble at the border" is brilliant. Already tried it out with 2 clients and delightful to see their ah-ha moments and expanded awareness as a result. Your academic study and examples from clients given during the teaching portion and the examples offered during the coaching all wrapped perspective, clarity, and credibility around the approach you offered.	Beautiful to witness your graceful style weave the core competencies into the coaching conversation. I left the call inspired and with expanded awareness and tools as a coach. I am a mentor coach and after the call I was wishing my trainees could hear the session. Coach U students have access to such recordings, but I do not have a resource for sample sessions to demo the competencies in action for students with 2 other training schools I work with. If you offer such a resource my email address is <susan@susanabrams.net>. Meanwhile, I'll encourage ICFLA membership <g>.	Topic, Presenter, Personal/professional development	5	YES	Susan Abrams	Abrams Coaching International
MCC	5	5	My second time filling out the form - wouldn't submit the first time. I was long-winded the first time, all glowing, but will need to say less to get a response in. The whole concept of "trouble at the border," examples, support information - stellar! The coaching demo ...wish the ICF had a bank of such model samples of how a coach's unique style captures the core competencies in a relaxed, yet with depth and breadth, coaching conversation.	I deeply appreciate your sharing your expansive knowledge and wisdom gained from your years of study, experience, and your own creative synthesis of your work to offer as training for other coaches. I just came across your book The Energy of Money a month before this class was promoted. Getting much value from your book so thrilled to have the class opportunity as well.	Topic, Presenter, Earn CCEUs, Personal/professional development	5	NO

Trouble at the Border: How to Support Your Clients to Go Beyond Where They Are Stuck
with Maria Nemeth
(1-8-2013)

ICF Credential	Presenter's overall effectiveness	Value of content	Most valuable part of presentation	Comments for the presenter	Reason for attending	Overall Evaluation	ICFLA and the PRESENTER have permission to use my comments for marketing purposes.	First and Last Name	Business Name
	1 = Low; 5 = High					1 = Low; 5 = High
ICF Coach Member - no ICF Credential	5	5	A structure that works. Learning distilled from years of experience. I was able to use what I learned immediately.	Thank you for generously sharing your insights and practices.	Topic	5	YES	Juan Moscoso	Recovery Solutions Life Coaching
ACC	5	5	The idea of complexity at the border between visionary and physical .. as simply reality, not a negative state or requiring a negative internal conversation. Just "what's so" ...and the idea of re-framing this border in relation to the life intentions inventory.	I am very appreciative of this wisdom and practicality for working with self and clients and people in general.	Topic, Host, Personal/professional development	5	YES	Beverley Rhinesmith-Pape	PFI
ICF Coach Member - no ICF Credential	4	4	I loved the "trouble at the border" piece and it really fit with where I am at with a few of my projects for my business. THANK YOU for normalizing this for me.		Topic, Personal/professional development	4	YES	Maureen Caley-Verdonk	Inspired Living Life Coaching
Averages...	4.62	4.62				4.62			